THE DAYS YET IN PORTABLE SCRIMBLE

Little Northumberland has come and done it. He's picked up a portable radio set and he's listening in on everybody's business.

How can it be thought that even he could enter the portable contest. He did enter for about five minutes. Then he was kicked out on his ear, but he wasn't hurt, because his ears are over-size and are as sturdy as armor.

"Norty" came in yesterday with a list of stations a year long that he said he had heard the night before. We looked at them and almost fell off our chairs. He had WKAC, WPKX, WOLF and WHB listed along with the rest.

"The you mean to tell me you got these stations?" we asked him. "Norty" took the list and looked at the one with a checked mark.

"Oh, those," he said. "No, those were wrong numbers I got. We just discovered that 'Norty' is a relative of Doc Cook.

How many stations have you heard in a single evening so far—and how many wrinkles have you in your forehead, not that that interests us.

The answers are coming in fast and you'll better get ready to read before the heavy news begins. Go in the woods or take your portable out on your vacation. If you haven't had it yet. The prizes are "Norty" today. It's a Croyley Tribble and it would cost you $150, but you can get it for $100.

The contest is in two divisions or groups—one for the largest number of stations received in a portable and the other for the greatest number of practical wireless portable. Prizes are awarded in each group.

September 3rd is so far away, no you better get busy. Tonight we'll be the best night you'll have. Address your answers to the Portable Contest Editor, Boston American.

NO BROADCAST STATIONS END PROGRAMS

Lack of a solution for the present radio problem—"Who is to pay for broadcasting?"

Radio WJAO, St. Paul, Minn., of two "Class B" broadcasting stations.

Cutting & Washington Radio Corporation, and Station WJAH, operated by the Dayton Company.

Both stations have been suspended for a year. Both are probably permanently. Both were 500-watt stations, among the most powerful and popular in the Middle West.

In the WJAO case, it was announced that the station closed recently because of insufficient funds for its maintenance, and business men have contributed to the extent of $50,000 annually to keep the station going.

Recently an attempt was made to raise a similar amount to maintain the station from now on for another year, but it failed.

In the same week the Dayton Company announced that the Dayton Company Station, which had been operating since 1924, had been suspended for a year.

The leaves Minneapolis and St. Paul, total population exceed 800,000 persons, without a high-power station.

Radio Q Series

With a long function if featured in the radio of an evening.

Yes, very well indeed.

What is the meaning of "radio" in the radio of an evening.

Radio is the meaning of "radio" in the radio of an evening.

SECOND PRIZE IN THE PORTABLE CONTEST

A SET AS IS A SET

You can almost hear yourself think clearly with this Croyley Tribble. Its selectivity is almost uncanny. You'll be more delighted with it than a kid is with a lollipop. Go after it.

RED SOX SHOW PRESENTY OF PUNCH IN GAMES AT THE FENWAY

FENWAY GUEST OF THE HOUR

By NICK FLATLEY

Carl Fullerton, East Boston youth, faced the toughest battle of his length career this afternoon. It was the guest of honor at Fenway Park. The Red Sox were out in thousands to cheer him. And he had to stand for it all, and then proceed to keep the Red Sox on the victory path.

That path is getting to be quite a trail. But he has collected a new row, and one that is called new meat in the vernacular of the pastime. They have come from toward a sixth straight tie just the third of a winning streak.

If they look the Indians today, they will walk away with the game, the tip of the second division, settling them makes the team one of the features of a well-timed season. Some three days ago, the boys were in the cellar and just going down. They were losing to the Red Sox, but they were looking for a sweet spot in some slow C. League to park the club.

TOUGHEN UP NOW

Nothing is different. The teams that expected to come here and gain games and percentage had the pleasure of the invasion with the least of a flock of youngsters leaving a hole deep to attend school more. Boston was the safest spot in the league a month ago. Just now it is the toughest.

The St. Louis Browns came here with recent visitors. They won a couple of games, but then they lost a pair. That got them their drive, and now they are practically out of the hunt.

The Detroit Tigers are still fighting for the place, and they have been along after they get through with the Yankees. If the Yankees don't weaken, they will put quite a dent in the dreams of the Tigers.

For the last time, they have been playing very good baseball in spite of this. They have been hitting the ball on the nose, and have been getting on the bases in an excellent way.

These experts are in Detroit for the opening of the Western tour next week. Among the nationally known players who are registered are: Jimmie F. Wacker of Washington, D. C., and J. M. Wacker of St. Paul, Minn., and J. M. Wacker of St. Paul, Minn., and J. M. Wacker of St. Paul, Minn.

RANDS AND EVERYTHING

Young Major League and minor league players are all here. The Red Sox are the only team in the league that has been playing through the day in the Fenway.

Mo and Joe They Get the Dough---Sometimes

By NICK FLATLEY

Moe had his winning clothes on yesterday. He planted half a grand on Superette to cop the curtain race and gathered in three hundred smackers. This may be the start of another streak. The baby he operates on today was handed him by the wise guy of the turf, Pee Jay Regan. Bank roll now $9,055.21.

That path is getting to be quite a trail. But he has collected a new row, and one that is called new meat in the vernacular of the pastime. They have come from toward a sixth straight tie just the third of a winning streak.

HOW TO K WELL

By Dr. E. X. Mahoney.

AN Indian man came as a three-year-old son who resembles every one and claims that he can get his hands dirty and turn twenty-five dollars more to become a First class engineer.

HIS was spread upon the dog house to settle up long ago and the doctor took out forty-eight bones.

HIS mother was so tickled that she didn't want him to go down again to see her father.

HIS boy knew just how much it cost to put a check mark on the wall every time he swallowed a dime.

HIS getting older now and it is said that he will never be able to sit at quarters and drink tea.

HIS only difference between this world and his father's is that he didn't get any fathers.

HIS so full of money that every time his father spans him he rattles.

HIS had a cold sore and coughed up a handful of nickel.

HIS old nose asked him if he couldn't reach a little harder as they were four dollars short in the rent.

SO the boy went into convulsions.

I wish you would thank E. Street, Lawrence, for me, as I not get full address. If I could anything for the children I will appreciate it. It isn't me so as my children—three boys, 12, 11, 9, twin boys 2 years, girls, 7, 5—as I have five going school. The couple of dresses I get I can make over, as they fit me. I appreciate what they doing for me. Shoes, size 12, 9 years, boys; girls, 7, 5, twins 4. I don't care if they are alike. I would be only too glad receive them. MRS. G.

FINANCE

By George W. Brown

A profitable market for bonds is being developed in the United States. The demand for bonds is increasing rapidly, and the market is becoming more active. The price of bonds is rising, and the yield is falling. This is a favorable situation for investors who are looking for a safe and profitable investment.
